

Why Waldorf Education?

Meeting the Needs of 21st Century Children

A TALK BY LISA ROMERO

Lisa Romero will explore the deep wisdom of Waldorf Education, which provides guidance and support for children's successful journey from early childhood through 12th grade towards inner development and freedom in adulthood.

This talk will also speak to need and possibilities of healing the impacts of technology on the growing child. This opportunity is highly valuable for teachers, parents, therapists and those wishing to gain insight into the Waldorf understanding of child development and the pedagogical approaches that support healthy growth.
