RUDOLF STEINER SCHOOL

Upper School Information Sciences/Mathematics Teacher Part-Time/Full-Time Position Immediate Start

Position: The Rudolf Steiner School is seeking a versatile colleague to teach in grades 6-12. An ideal candidate would have the capacity to teach Information Science courses, mathematics at a variety of levels, and would be able to help colleagues with hardware and software support. Based on the skills and interests of the candidate, this position could be either full-time or part-time.

Strong candidates will possess a degree in computer science, mathematics, or a related science, and will have upper school teaching experience, ideally in a Waldorf school. Our department includes experienced mentor-teachers and in-house professional development opportunities; this position could be the right fit for an enthusiastic early-career teacher. As members of the Upper School faculty, teachers have the opportunity to work collaboratively with one another on a daily basis and in regular departmental, area, and all-school meetings.

Our School: The Rudolf Steiner School, an independent nursery-12 school, and the first Waldorf School in North America, is located on Manhattan's Upper East Side. The school is committed to building a healthy, inclusive community that reflects the diversity of NYC. We welcome new faculty to contribute to our vision of Waldorf education for the 21st century.

RSS is a member of the Association of Waldorf Schools of North America and is accredited by both AWSNA and the New York State Association of Independent Schools. RSS Inc. is a nonprofit, tax-exempt organization incorporated under the laws of N.Y. State and does not discriminate on the basis of race, creed, sex, sexual orientations, gender identity or national origin.
